MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

Pending is Sterling Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment (Document No. 70), Compass Bank's Motion for Summary Judgment (Document No. 72), Receiver's Motion for Summary Judgment (Document No. 79), Sterling Bank's Motion to Preclude Expert Testimony of Patrick Finn and to Strike His Expert Report and Declaration (Document No. 87), Compass Bank's Motion to Preclude the Purported Expert Testimony of Mr. Patrick Finn, and to Strike His Purported Expert Report (Document No. 88), and Sterling Bank's request for a Daubert hearing on the motions (Document No. 101).

After carefully considering the motions for summary judgment, responses, replies, and applicable law, the Court concludes that genuine issues of material fact remain regarding (i) whether First United Funding, LLC ("First United"), in the course of committing pervasive fraud on some third parties, was also operating as a Ponzi scheme, (ii) whether First United in its dealings with Defendants transferred its assets (as those terms are defined under the Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act) to Sterling Bank and Compass Bank, (iii) whether Sterling Bank and Compass Bank received the transfers in exchange for reasonably equivalent value, and (iv) whether certain of Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the statute of limitations. Accordingly, all motions for summary judgment are DENIED.

Defendant Sterling Bank's Request for Daubert Hearing (Document No. 101) is GRANTED, and hearing is SET on Sterling Bank's Motion to Preclude Expert Testimony of Patrick Finn and to Strike His Expert Report and Declaration (Document No. 87), and Compass Bank's Motion to Preclude the Purported Expert Testimony of Mr. Patrick Finn, and to Strike His Purported Expert Report (Document No. 88), as follows:
